LORE & ESSENCE

"Patience is the sharpest blade. I have centuries to wield it."

Shilo Nel is Othorian's son, born over six hundred years ago. He is brilliant, charming, and utterly convinced that elves are superior to every other race. He sees the alliance with humans as a temporary embarrassment. He is not stupid enough to move against his father openly — instead, he builds networks of influence, whispers in the right ears, and waits. He is evil, but the cunning kind that never gets caught.

KEY RELATIONSHIPS

Othorian Nel. His father. Shilo respects his power but despises his tolerance of humans.

Charles Rex. The human king he privately considers an insect sitting on half a stolen throne.
